

Pikes Peak Council's University of Scouting

The exciting, fun-filled, single day, adult leader growth, development and education event of the year.

Over 60 hours of training to choose from!

Saturday February 2, 2019
Colorado Technical University
4435 North Chestnut Street
Colorado Springs, Colorado
8:30am-4:00pm

Costs

Den Chief Training- $ 10 (8:30-11am) no lunch

U of S participant- $35 Cost cover Lunch 12-1pm

Those people with food allergies please plan accordingly and bring your lunch

Register today at- <http://www.pikespeakbsa.org>

Boy Scouts

BS101	Activity and Event Planning	A fundamental teaching tool for our scouts is to have them plan and lead the troops activities. This course will give you some planning aids to ensure that your scouts are prepared
BS102	Life to Eagle process	This course will present the fundamentals of the process and offer ideas for mentoring your Life scouts to Eagle
BS103	Merit Badge Counselor requiring process	Learn how to expand your current pool of merit badge instructors and give them the tools to succeed
BS105	Youth Training Continuum	The youth leadership training continuum represents the scope and sequence of leadership training courses available to youth members of the Boy Scouts of America. Courses are available for youth ranging in age from 11 through 20, delivered in a range of engaging methods using case studies, games, discussions, and experiential education models.
BS106	Scout to 1st class in 12 months	It is well documented that scouts that make 1st class in their 1st year are more likely to make Eagle. This course will help you make a troop program to help them get there.
BS107	Scouting past Eagle	There is more learn about Palms, Scholarships, and other activities for those youth that can't get enough
BS108	Scoutmaster Conferences	Once a scout has finished the requirements to advance in rank, he faces a couple more hurdles before the Court of Honor. Learn how the SM conference can really inspire and motivate a scout to continue. They can also do just the opposite.
BS109	Scoutmaster Minute	inspirational stories and how to present them to your unit
BS110	Troop resources administration	There is so much information available on the web that its simply overwhelming. This course will discuss some of the resources available on the web as well as through the Council and other local organizations
BS303	Challenging and Retaining Older Scouts	How do you keep your Life and Eagle scouts active in the troop? What are older scouts looking for? Discover ways to keep your experienced scouts involved.
BS305	Exciting Courts of Honor	Just as Cub Scouts remember exciting Pack meetings, so also will your Boy Scouts remember the ceremonies that they attend. Get some ideas for your Scout leaders to make their ceremonies more impressive and memorable.
BS310	Orienteering & Geocaching	Learn or refresh some of the Techniques to using maps, compasses, and orienteering. The Course also offers an opportunity to learn more about GPS and geocaching. It will give you the confidence to teach your scouts some very important skills.
BS312	Training Youth To Be Leaders	You've had your troop elections, now what? If you don't train your youth for their new positions, you can't expect them to run the program effectively. Find out how to put on an Introduction to Troop Leadership Skills course!
BS316	Boards of Review	Once a scout has finished his Scout Master Conference, he faces one more hurdle before the court of honor. Learn how the Board of Review can really inspire and motivate a scout to continue. Or how they can do the opposite
BS319	Gearing up for scouting	So you're just starting scouting. What kind of gear do you need? What should you buy first? How much should you expect to spend? What should you NOT buy? This course gives you the answers to these questions and more!
BS322	Eagle Scout Service Project Coach	The Eagle Scout service project coach is the key to success in council or district efforts to guide Scouts through the service project process. Learn about the many ways that the Eagle Scout Service Project Coach and help guide a Scout through the many tasks and issues leading to successfully completing the Eagle Scout Service Project.

Cub Scouts

CS102	Baloo the Builder	A discussion on the safety and usage of several wood working tools. Students will construct 2 wooden projects
CS103	Bear Claws	A description of some common pocket knives their usage and care. Each participant earns their own "Whittlin' Chip" card while enjoying some soap carving
CS105	Pizzazz for Pack Meetings	Are you Pack Meetings getting a little stale? Are you doing the same thing month after month? Join us and we'll show you how to breathe some life (and fun) back into your Pack Meetings!
CS106	Quick and Easy Games	Scouts need games at all levels to burn off energy, keep them focused, and to have FUN! If your pocket full of games is getting a little empty, come join us to fill it back up so you and your Scouts can continue to have fun!
CS107	Annual Planning/Developing the annual program	All units should be conducting Annual Planning each year, but when should we do it, who should be there, and what's the most effective way to get it done without turning it into a marathon of a meeting?
CS108	Derby's and races	Every Scout will remember the Rain Gutter Regattas, Space Derby, and Pinewood Derby's. Especially when you plan them well. Get ideas on how to make your derbies and races better.
CS115	Neckerchief Slides	Scouting has a long tradition of handmade neckerchief slides that inspire, impress, or amuse. Learn techniques you and your youth can use to make a wide variety of slides. This course is part display and discussion and part hands-on, from the simple to the complex.
CS118	Designs that Fly	Are you looking for an activity that is easy to do and LOTS of fun? Need a rainyday backup? A craft you've never seen before? This is the course for you. An over-the-top hands-on take-it-home-with-you extravaganza of make fly planes, rockets, toys, and more.
CS201	Planning Great Campouts	Every Cub Scout wants to sleep in a tent and roast marshmallows. This course will help you develop a plan to make it even more enjoyable for all
CS210	Campfire Program ideas	Just as Cub Scouts like to roast marshmallows, older boys also enjoy relaxing around a campfire, hearing stories telling some jokes and maybe singing some silly songs. This course will give you some ideas on how to add some more sparkle to your evening campfire
CS211	Blue and gold banquet and other ceremonies	Do you know what really goes into making an enjoyable Blue and Gold Banquet? Get some new ideas for ceremonies for your banquet and or meetings
CS212	Making the most of your meeting time	Do you feel like there is never enough time to accomplish what you have planned? Get some ideas on how to be more efficient with the limited time you have with your scouts
cs214	Den and Pack Administration	Keeping up with all the paperwork is important to ensure that our cubs receive prompt recognition for their efforts. Learn how to be more efficient with advancements, finance and communications.

General Studies

GS103	Changes to the Boy Scouts of America for 2018 and 2019	During this class, we will discuss the changes to the Boy Scouts of America as an organization, including the Cub Scout, Boy Scout, and Venturing programs within the organization. We will discuss policy changes, implementation dates, and will dispel any rumors about what is or is not changing. Come join us to learn more about the Boy Scouts of America and the many exciting opportunities for young men and women moving forward.
GS101	Adult Recognition	Adult volunteers work hard to deliver great programs for our scouts. Learn how to recognize their efforts through leaders knots, certificates and other awards.
GS102	Flag Etiquette and Ceremonies	From flag ceremonies to flag retirements there's more than one way to show respect and honor the emblem of our nation. Come for a hands-on session so you have the correct information for leading and teaching your Scouts!
GS104	BSA's E Training and the training continuum	Discover the wide range of educational training that is available on line from the BSA, you unit training coordinator and how they help develop scout leaders
GS105	Cooking Beginning and advanced 2 hrs	Hands on opportunity to try new outdoor cooking techniques and recipes for your unit. What you cook in class will be your lunch for the day
GS107	Getting Parents involved	Sometimes it's hard to get busy parents involved come pick up some pointers
GS108	Guide to Safe Scouting	What does it really say? This is a great resource to ensure that we are providing a safe and enjoyable program for all. It is important that we don't rely on "Leader Lore" and know what it really says (and doesn't say).
GS112	The Den Chief	What exactly does a Den Chief do? How does this program help the Cub Scouts and the Boy Scout?
GS116	All About Shooting Sports	Find out about the various Shooting Sports offered at all levels of scouting from Cub's to Venturing. Learn what adult training is required to supervise shooting sports activities. Come join the fun in shooting sports
GS120	Astronomy for Scouts	There are billions and billions of stars and a handful of planets and more than one moon. Learn how to look for, identify, and talk about the objects in the night sky with your scouts!
GS121	STEM Nova Awards	There are billions and billions of stars and a handful of planets and more than one moon. Learn how to look for, identify, and talk about the objects in the night sky with your scouts!
GS122	Bullying- Prevention and intervention	When a Scout follows the principles of the Scout Oath and Scout Law, bullying and hazing situations should never occur. But what do you do when things go wrong? Find out in this informative course!
GS123	Knots for the Beginners	This is a beginning course for those uncomfortable with teaching knot tying.
GS124	Knot craft	Ready for something more advanced. Learn more knots, their uses and projects your Scouts can accomplish with them
GS125	Cub Scout to Troop Transition-	Transitioning parents and scouts from Cub Scouts to Boy Scouts. How to help Webelos and their adults by setting the tone and getting them engaged from the start will help both the scout and the troop succeed. Parents that were once active with their son as a cub may struggle to find their place in a troop. Get some ideas on how to get (and keep) these valuable resources involved.
GS126	Maximizing Your Unit's Service Opportunities	Is your unit having trouble getting enough service opportunities? Do you know everything you and your unit can do? What qualifies for service hours? This session will answer these questions and more while setting your unit up for Journey to Excellence Gold!
GS128	Journey to Excellence	Does your unit put on a quality program? Does your unit receive the Journey to Excellence award each year? If the answer to both of these questions isn't yes, then join us and discover how to raise the bar in you unit and make it more successful than ever!
GS135	A Scout is Reverent	An over view of religion in scouting and the religious awards programs for all scouts & Scouters

GS202	Boy Behavior/ solving behavioral challenges	Learning how to focus scouts on the ideals of scouting will help every individual scout and your unit.
GS203	Special Needs Scouting	"This class focuses on BSA's policies for accommodating special needs and disabled scouts, including alternate merit badges, rank requirement modifications, and remaining registered as a youth member beyond the maximum age. It applies to Cub Scouts, Scouts BSA, and Venturing."
GS204	Colorado Liability Laws and Scouting	Learn how Colorado Liability Laws support and impact your scouting activities
GS204	Unit Finance and Fundraising	This Course will give you ideas on more effective fundraising and finance. Helping you to deliver the promise of scouting to all of your scouts
GS209	Leader Burn Out	Are you in a unit where the same leaders are doing everything? With this course, you will get some ideas on how to keep your volunteers and leaders chugging along.
GS210	Recruiting New Leaders	Recruiting is a never-ending job. This session will provide an overview of how to prepare new unit leadership.
GS211	Year Around Recruiting	Too many units rely on recruiting at the beginning of the school year. Learn how to develop a program to recruit scouts throughout the year.
GS218	Special Awards	Learn how to integrate these awards into your packs advancement program.
GS219	Mentoring is not Coaching	Mentoring is an opportunity to help a person grow through discovery. This session will address various mentoring models and ways to be a mentor to scouts and scouters.
GS309	Introduction to Order of the Arrow	With this course you will get a much better understanding of the Scouting's Honor Society and how it can really help your unit thrive.
GS309	Introduction to Order of the Arrow	With this course you will get a much better understanding of the Scouting's Honor Society and how it can really help your unit thrive.

Venturing

V101	Venturing 101- Venturing Basics	This class focuses on what Venturing is, how Venturing works, and what Venturing can do
V111	Venturing 111- Youth Involvement in Venturing	This class focuses on youth involvement and youth leadership within Venturing. We will also talk about opportunities for youth leadership and training.
V201	VOA	Venturing Officers Association

Sea Scouts

S101	Sea Scouts -	Yes, Pikes Peak Council has Sea Scouts, but what do you know about the program? Learn more about Sea Scouts and have your questions answered by a Sea Scouts Leader!
------	--------------	--

Den Chief Training!

Boy Scouts wishing to become den chiefs need to take this course!

This is a 2-hour course from 9am-11am Check in is at 8:30 Participants must bring a completed "Part A" from the BSA health form at check in

Scouts will learn den chief responsibilities and tasks, as well as the den chief's relationship to the adult den leaders and how it relates to the den chief's activities with the den.

Den chief candidates receive their certificate of completion after the course.

All Scouts MUST be picked up by 11:15am